THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI C.M. IBRAHIM): (a) to (c) No, Sir. the computerised processing of the export documents pertaining to duty free goods and for drawback at the Air Cargo Unit of IGI Airport under the Delhi Customs commenced with effect from 3.6.96 and 1.11.96 respectively. Due to the changeover from manual to computerised system the number of documents cleared in the first few days was less than the normal output. To meet the exact requirements of the computerised system, the documents received from exporters had to be returned for rectification in some cases. However, the system has stabilised and is working satisfactorily.
